Youth Services calls for dancers to perform in signature fundraiser April 27

Brattleboro, VT—Are you interested in joining the 2019 cast of Can Windham County Dance? Have you ever imagined yourself dancing in the spotlight? Would you enjoy performing in front of a live audience? Are you looking for a way to positively influence the lives of young people and families in Windham County? If you answered yes to the above questions, Youth Services says they have an opportunity for you to fulfill that dream!

Youth Services is organizing So Can Windham County Dance? second annual gala with a goal of $20,000 raised to strengthen the safety net for area young people and families. This spring, Can Windham County Dance? gala will take place on Saturday, April 27 at SIT's International Center in Brattleboro.

Youth Services' newest signature fundraiser pairs well-known "celebrity" members of the community with their own partners or professional dance instructors who train with them on a dance routine that is performed in front of what is expected to be a sold-out gala crowd at SIT. According to Russell Bradbury-Carlin, Executive Director of Youth Services, the winner of the dance 'competition' is determined by talent and fundraising ability, a local twist on the reality TV show, Dancing with the Stars.

"We encourage anyone who's up for the challenge, to apply to join the cast of So Can Windham County Dance?" said Bradbury-Carlin. "We are currently recruiting individuals who are not only inspired by our mission to transform lives and inspire futures, but who also have the charisma, skill to perform on stage, and ability to raise funds for our cause."

An easy-to-complete questionnaire is available on Youth Services website. The deadline for submission is January 10. For more information call (802) 257-0361, email: info@youthservicesinc.org or go to youthservicesinc.org
